Dear Friends:

Dakshana successfully completed its 12th full year of operations in 2018. Since inception in 2007, the IITs have accepted 2146 Dakshana Scholars (out of a universe of 3473) – a success rate of 62%. Not too shabby – considering that the IITs accept under 2% of all applicants. In 2019, out of 457 Dakshana scholars who were prepared for the IIT entrance test, 241 made it – a success rate of 53%. In addition, 15 scholars from the 2018 batch, who did not make it to IIT the first time, were accepted by the IITs on their 2nd attempt in 2019.

In 2019, out of a total of 256 Dakshana Medical Stream Scholars, 164 were accepted by various government medical colleges – a success rate of 64%. The eventual success rate of this batch will increase as some scholars go for a 2nd attempt in 2020. In addition, 6 scholars from the 2018 batch were accepted by one or more government medical colleges on their 2nd attempt. Since 2017, various government medical colleges have accepted 296 Dakshana Scholars (out of a total universe of 511 Dakshana medical stream scholars) – a success rate of 58%.

Out of these 296 scholars, 55 have been accepted by The All India Institute of Medical Colleges (AIIMS). AIIMS is the Harvard Medical School of India and accepts less than 700 medical students annually (out of hundreds of thousands). AIIMS has accepted 11% of our scholars since 2017 versus a national admit rate of 0.4%. In 2019, Dakshana took the cover off the ball with the success our scholars had in getting seats at AIIMS. A record 27 of our scholars were accepted by AIIMS in 2019. In 2019, Dakshana scholars took more than 4% of available AIIMS seats.

Congrats to the scholars, the faculty and Team Dakshana for working very hard to make this happen. With three years of medical coaching under our belt, Dakshana has established a very solid competency in top-end medical coaching relatively quickly. Most of the medical coaching faculty members are Dakshana employees and I could not be prouder of them.

Pleased but not Satisfied

While these stats are excellent, to quote David Sokol, I am pleased but not satisfied. Dakshana should have success rates at IIT and medical colleges that exceed 70%. We have been over 70% for most of the last few years. In 2018, we ended up with a 69% success rate, which is fine. However, in 2019 our blended success rate was 59%. This is a full eleven percentage points below where we minimally expect to be. Our scholar numbers are larger now and, with India's growing population, admission to these elite institutions gets harder every year. While this is a real headwind, we also should have plenty of tailwinds from the ever-widening selection pool and improved selection and coaching with each passing year.

We are the rare non-profit that obsesses over outcomes and effectiveness. Dakshana has always paid attention to what the data is telling us and continuously made course corrections to improve our yields. As a result, in 2019, we significantly raised the bar on our selections. So much so that, for the first time in our history, Dakshana did not utilize 100% of our capacity. Our 2019-20 strength at Dakshana Valley is 493 versus current dorm capacity of 588. The incremental cost of filling these empty beds is quite low as it would mainly increase the cost of providing meals. However, we want to first get back to the 70+% success number and then resume the scaling.

Dakshana also needs to widen the net dramatically to get to the real India. There are over 10,000 government schools in India that offer education through 12th grade. This is our newly expanded target universe. Until 2017, we singularly focused on the Rolls-Royce JNV magnet school system, while ignoring the elephant in the room. It made sense to harvest the low hanging fruit first – especially given the limited size of our basket.

Now, with the addition of Dakshana Valley, we can go after the real underbelly of India's state and locally run government school systems. While many government school systems have improved dramatically over the years (the Delhi government schools being a shining example), the quality of an overwhelming number of these schools leaves a lot to be desired. School infrastructure is pathetic, teacher absenteeism/indifference is rampant and the teachers' unions are very powerful. In India government school teachers earn higher average salaries than their private school peers. And they cannot be fired. As a result most of the school budget goes for teacher salaries with hardly any funds left over for anything else. These factors create serious obstacles to student success.

These are early days. We have just begun our search for diamonds in the rough in the vast hinterlands of India. We have so far only touched students from 815 of these 10,000 schools. Over the last three years just 139 scholars from 76 of these 815 government schools were accepted to get coached at Dakshana Valley – even though we tested over 6000 of them. Finding the diamonds ain't so easy. Most of the diamonds have been badly damaged well before we ever get to them. The good news is that we did correctly identify a few promising diamonds and convert them quickly from zeroes to heroes in less than a year.

Dakshana's first challenge is to spread awareness about our incredible all-inclusive scholarships. We need students, teachers and principals at virtually all 10,000 of these schools to be knowledgeable about Dakshana. These 10,000 schools are part of hundreds of distinct school systems. Getting in front of the leadership of each of these school systems and convincing them to promote Dakshana takes considerable effort. We have begun direct outreach to the schools as well. Dakshana has beefed up its staffing and spending in this area. I am confident these efforts will bear fruit in the years ahead and we'll be busy polishing many a rough diamond.

Visiting Scholar Homes in Ladakh – One of the Best Trips of my Life!

A few weeks ago, Colonel and I spent an amazing few days visiting Dakshana alums and their families in Ladakh District in the state of Jammu & Kashmir. We had an incredible trip. These scholar home visits are always the best week of the year for me. The Ladakh trip was perhaps the best of the numerous scholar home trips that I have made over the years. Kerala, which I did a few years ago, is a close second.

Ladakh is the world's highest desert. Our plane landed at the Leh airfield, which is at 11,000 feet above sea level. We went as high as 18,000 feet. It is a cold and dry place with spectacular beauty. Every few miles, the landscape changes entirely – and becomes even more beautiful.

I rarely do vacations because those are painfully boring. In reality, I am on vacation every day. Being in the office writing this missive is definitely far more exciting for me than being on a beach in Hawaii. Ladakh was spectacular not just because of the landscape, but because of the warm hospitality we received in the homes of Dakshana alums in various remote villages. Many times when I looked around I thought I was on Bollywood movie set. It is the largest district in India with the smallest population. Sometimes the distances between homes was over 50 miles with spectacular snow-capped mountain ranges separating the scenic valleys. Ladakh gives one a front row seat to the results of the enormous force with which India slammed into Asia over hundreds of millions of years. That collision is still continuing. Mount Everest gets taller with each passing year.

Five of the seven scholars we visited are girls from Ladakh. Their parents mostly never got past 8th grade. The girls are Aerospace Engineers, Chemical Engineers, Civil Engineers, etc. The Ladakh Dakshana Scholars are either alums or students at IIT Bombay, IIT Kharagpur, IIT Roorkee, School of Planning and Architecture (New Delhi), etc. They can go toe to toe with the best of the best. And virtually all of them want to come back to Ladakh.

I saw countless Buddhist prayer wheels set against stunning vistas. It is the most beautiful place on the planet with very content, happy and beautiful people. They have so little, but they are so happy. It was a great trip on so many levels. These trips are priceless experiences that are virtually impossible to clone. For everything else there's Mastercard.

Scale-up at Dakshana Valley Continues

We began operations at Dakshana Valley in 2015 with 78 scholars. That number grew to 139 in 2016, 239 in 2017, 356 in 2018 and nearly 500 scholars in 2019. It is scaling very nicely and I am impressed with Colonel and his team's execution on the ramp-up. Dakshana Valley now has greater capacity than all seven other Dakshana JNV campuses combined. We successfully completed construction of two hostels to house more girls and boys in 2019. The Indira Foundation generously provided $500,000 in funding for the Taraben J. Mehta Girls hostel with capacity for 192 girls – and we are very grateful for their support.

Over the last year we've worked with an excellent architectural firm, Morphogenesis, to create a master plan for Dakshana Valley to eventually house 2600 scholars. Morphogenesis is one of the best architectural firms in India and they created a fantastic plan to take us in a phased manner from 600 to 2600 scholars over perhaps the next decade or more. My decades of experience as an entrepreneur have taught me not to "invest ahead of the growth." We need to be busting at the seams before we embark on the next phase of buildout. The entire buildout of the additional 2000 capacity will cost over $20 million.

Currently we have 95 vacant beds at Dakshana Valley. We will only embark on the first phase buildout once two conditions are met:

1. We have a shortage of beds
2. Our results show that we are back to 70+% success.

I am cautiously optimistic that we'll hit both of the above goals in 2020 and can begin the first phase of the scale-up to 1000 beds. This first phase involves over 200,000 sq. ft. of new construction. It will take about two years to execute and cost $5-7 million.

While the JNV-Dakshana partnership has been fantastic, the lack of growth has been very frustrating for Colonel and me. The wheels of government move slowly. I am excited that we were able to find another way to keep our growth engine going. It doesn't look like we'll make our 2020 IIT seats goal in 2020. We lost too many years waiting for the Dakshana-JNV partnership to scale. It does look like we'll have nearly 1000 kids take the IIT and medical entrance exams in 2020 and beyond. I will gladly take that consolation prize.

Dakshana 2.0

Dakshana's present focus is awesome, but has finite scaling limits. There are a limited number of IIT and government medical college seats. Dakshana's upper limit is likely taking 10% of these seats. Not only do we eventually run out of seats, it keeps getting exceedingly harder to find an ever-increasing number of ultra-high IQ brains – as demonstrated by our nearly 100 vacant beds this year. The best case is that we will thus max. out at prepping a few thousand scholars a year.

If, for example, we are prepping 3000 scholars at a time, our spending would likely be around $7 million/year. While this exceeds our currently available resources, I am cautiously optimistic that, in a few years, Dakshana may routinely have over $7 million in annual inflows. Dakshana 2.0 is our first attempt to prepare for the day when Dakshana 1.0 is maxed out. It is an experiment and we're very willing to fail.

Most of you are likely familiar with Khan Academy (khanacademy.org) and their awesome animated math YouTube videos. Besides this fantastic free content, Khan Academy has spent substantial time and resources developing comprehensive digital K-12 mathematics content and software to be used by teachers in classrooms. The Khan Academy content includes assessment tests by topic, zillions of animated videos, tracking the progress of every student and robust reports to the teacher. The present Khan architecture requires each school to have a server that connects to Khan's content over the internet. Students connect to the server via thin PC-like clients.

Dakshana and Khan Academy have formally partnered to deliver Khan's content to students in a pilot program at a select few government schools. Dakshana liaises with the schools and creates a "digital math lab" in each school. All the hardware, software, furnishings and infrastructure are provided by Dakshana. Khan Academy gives us access to their exceptional content and software at no cost. Dakshana appoints a teaching assistant (TA) at every school who is on our payroll. These TAs manage the lab, set the schedule and track the progress of all students.

We believe that Khan's platform is strong enough on K-12 mathematics to enable learning with little to no help from math teachers. The quality of math teachers at government schools is hit or miss. Dakshana will be able to test this hypothesis via the math board exam results in 10th and 12th grade students at these schools, versus past results at the same school, and compare to other similar schools.

We have begun a pilot program at two government residential schools. One is a government school in Telangana that only admits impoverished tribal boys. The 2nd is an all-girls school in Andhra Pradesh. There is no furniture in any of the classrooms of the Andhra girls school. The girls sit on the floor. They've never used computers before. When they enter the Dakshana math lab, these girls are in a different world. They encounter desks, chairs, computers, the internet and, most importantly, air conditioning. The student academic preparedness in the girls school is heart breaking. Some don't even know the English alphabet (the school starts at 5th grade and is English medium). Most don't have even basic math skills. The Khan platform is challenging due to their lack of English skills and zero familiarity with computers. Dakshana is soldiering on. We are dealing with issues well beyond math education.

While the girls school admits anyone from the area, it is no surprise that it is perhaps one of the least desirable schooling options for even the poorest families. I am excited to see where we are with these girls and mathematics in a few years. Dakshana is finally embedded deeply within the underbelly of government school systems in India. Stay tuned!

Dakshana is in the best financial shape it has ever been in. Not only has the $10 million Dakshana Valley purchase price been fully paid off, we've spent an additional $2 million increasing its capacity and improving the infrastructure. Our investment in Dakshana Valley (at cost) is now over $12 million. Dakshana has over $22.5 million in assets with virtually no liabilities or payables. Over 46% of these assets are sitting in cash and investments. Our liquidity is outstanding. The heights Dakshana has scaled over the last dozen years have significantly exceeded all my expectations.

I would never have forecasted a few years ago that Dakshana would end 2018 with over $22 million in net assets. Even after lifting thousands of families from poverty, Dakshana ended 2018 with higher net assets than my family's entire net worth at the end of 2008. Amazing. I could never have imagined this reality when, during the depths of the 2008-09 financial crisis, I seriously considered shuttering Dakshana. What a difference a decade makes.

The $3.7 million investment loss is mostly unrealized and will likely reverse itself in the years ahead. I love Dakshana's investment portfolio and expect robust gains in the years ahead. Our donor base is very stable. Mr. R. K. Damani, one of the most highly respected investors and business leaders in India, has recently become an ardent fan of Dakshana. He is the founder of Avenue Supermarts (D-Mart) and perhaps the best investor and trader India has ever seen. Mr. Damani visited Dakshana Valley in 2019 and committed $1 million a year to Dakshana for five years. With supporters like Mr. Prem Watsa, Mr. R. K. Damani, the Indira Foundation and many many others, it is highly likely our annual inflows from donors (excluding the Pabrai Family) will exceed $2.5 million a year for the foreseeable future.

It is important for us to have this stable source of funds annually as the formulaic Pabrai family giving has had extreme swings since inception. The recurring donor contributions are critical for our financial stability. With our $5-7 million in Phase I buildout, we'll definitely need that $10.5 million cushion of cash and investments.

Direct Scholar Expenses

In 2018, we spent $1.7 million on the Dakshana Scholar Program and related corporate overhead. Of this amount, $1.3 million was spent directly on the Dakshana Scholar Coaching Program and about $0.4 million comprised of our corporate overhead. Let's examine the scholar expenses in a bit of detail.

During 2018, we delivered the equivalent of 1116 scholar years of JEE & NEET coaching. Of this number, 298 scholar years were for the 1-year program and 818 scholar years for the 2-year program.

Table 2. Dakshana Scholar Cost Data

Year	Cost/Scholar	Scholar Years
2007	$3650	176
2008	$3086	524
2009	$2100	356
2010	$1922	270
2011	$2475	219
2012	$2553	398
2013	$2450	576
2014	$2053	689
2015	$2516	676
2016	$2171	761
2017	$2283	1045
2018	$1889	1116

The average cost to support a scholar across Dakshana's various programs in 2018 was $1889. In spite of rampant inflation in India since 2007, our cost per scholar is the lowest it has ever been. We have meaningfully increased insourcing of faculty versus outsourcing it. Insourcing gives us many advantages. The cost is significantly lower and the faculty is available to our scholars for the entire day. Many of our faculty members are IIT grads and Dakshana Alums. At Dakshana Valley and Bengaluru, most of them live with the scholars on campus. Colonel "tightwad" Sharma is extremely good at getting rid of even the tiniest bits of excess spending. God bless the Colonel!

Corporate Overhead Expenses & Fully Loaded Cost/Scholar

Our corporate overhead in 2018 of $0.4 million made up about 22% of our outlays. This seems extraordinarily high relative to the spending on the scholars. It is high, but unlike many other foundations, the Dakshana Scholar program is a direct program run by Dakshana. Many of these so called “overhead expenses” are actually core to the program. For example, when our staff makes frequent trips to the various JNV campuses, they are classified as overhead, but they are 100% focused on ensuring program and scholar success.

We typically do not make grants to other non-profits. We run these very labor and management intensive programs ourselves. With staff and scholars spread across eight remote locations in India, the logistical overheads and costs are quite significant. It does involve considerable travel, infrastructure and staff to execute. Also, it is hard to cut overhead below a baseline. Nonetheless, as we scale up our scholar base, we do expect the overhead expenses to become smaller portions of the pie.

It costs us a loaded $8000/scholar to build the infrastructure at Dakshana Valley. If we amortize this over 20 years, it is $400/scholar on a recurring basis.

Our fully loaded cost (including corporate overhead and construction) was about $2650/scholar in 2018. For the foreseeable future, a good rule of thumb for Dakshana is to assume direct scholar expenses in the $2000-$2500 range, overhead expenses in the $300-$500 range, and annual amortized construction cost/scholar in the $300-500/scholar range, leading to a $2600-$3500 fully loaded cost per scholar.

The Cost to Produce an IITian or Medical Doctor

While the direct and overhead costs to support a scholar matter, it is the cost to produce an IITian that is the real benchmark that matters. It is the report card on how effective our spending and give-back endeavors truly are.

 Infrastructure cost of $400/scholar added from 2017

It used to cost Dakshana over $11,500 to get one scholar to IIT. This has improved dramatically over the years – it was $4500 in 2018. Further, most of the scholars that didn't make it to IIT are heading to pretty respectable institutions like the NITs, etc. The diligent reader will note that our 2017 success ratio changed from 65% in last year's report to 69% in the above table. The increase is due to more seats being taken by scholars on their 2nd attempt and more precision on the real seats scholars ended up with. Similarly, the 59% success ratio and loaded cost/scholar for 2019 will improve after we get the 2nd attempt data in 2020.

Dakshana's Financial Health

From the outset, Harina and I committed to give 2% of our net worth to Dakshana every year as long as our net worth exceeded $50 million at the end of any given year. When our net worth exceeded $100 million for the first time in 2017 (yaay!), we felt it was time to go beyond the 2%. As a result, we updated the formula to give 3% over $100 million, 4% over $150 million and 5% of everything over $200 million. Based on this updated formula, the annual amounts we're expected to give and actually gave are as follows:

Table 4. Mohnish Pabrai and Harina Kapoor – Giving Formula vs. Actual Giving

Harina and I are amazed that we've been able to give over $27 million to Dakshana since inception.

Dakshana's Wonderful Family of Donors

We received over $1.7 million in donations from our generous donors, with the Watsa family contributing over $975,000. Every dollar matters and we are very grateful to our wonderful group of patrons. Here is a list of our 2018 donors:

I am pleased to report that these gifted funds were used to buy books, improve scholar nutrition, create/improve classroom and dorm infrastructure, pay for coaching services for our scholars and, most importantly, fund a part of the Dakshana Valley purchase. Harina and I are grateful to our patrons for their generosity and wisdom.

And now, it's time for a short commercial break. You can make a gift to Dakshana here: <https://dakshana.org/donate/>. We accept all major credit cards and Paypal. You can also send us a check (in US dollars, Canadian dollars or Indian rupees). And your gift is fully tax deductible. We can also set up automatic recurring monthly charges to your credit card. $99 or C$130 a month for 24 months fully supports one scholar. You can even pick the scholar you'd like to support and we can arrange for interaction and meetings.

Donate your Beater Car. We'll even pick it up!

Through our partnership with Action Donation Services (www.actiondonation.org), Dakshana can accept donations of cars, boats, RVs, and other property donations anywhere in the United States. It is simple. You get a tax deduction. ADS picks up the vehicle (even if does not start!). Please call Action Donation Services at +1.866.244.8464, or us at +1.949.453.0609, or email Julie Anno (janno@dakshana.org) for more information.

The donated item will be picked up from a location of your choice at a time of your choosing at no cost to you. You will receive the maximum legal tax deductions and possibly a partial cash payment. This is a great way to get rid of that beater car and help a great cause!

Ebay Lunch Auction

The winner of the lunch auction in 2018 was Kishore Joshi who lives in Atlanta. Wonderful guy! I have briefly bumped into Kishore a few times in Omaha and I look forward to breaking bread with Kishore and his family soon in Laguna Beach, California.

Our tenth annual lunch/conference call auctions will be held in October 2019 on Ebay. In the true spirit of market-driven auctions, the bidding will start at $0.01 for both, with no minimum. The lunch auction winner will get my not-so-old wallet as well. It is rumored that there may be a stock tip in there (with no reps and warranties!).

The guidelines remain the same. The winner can bring up to seven folks with him or her. The lunch will take place anywhere in Southern California or another mutually agreeable alternate location. Anything is fair game to discuss, except current portfolio holdings. Of course, you can ask about the stock tip. And I'll personally pick up the tab.

A few years back we started auctioning off an annual conference call with me with all proceeds going to Dakshana. The difficulty with the lunch auction is that meals can only take place in limited geographies. The conference call format allows anyone from anywhere on the planet to bid and participate.

Table 7. Ebay Conference Call Results – 2013 to Present

Year	Winning Bid	Actual Proceeds	Winner
2018	$ 12,100	$ 12,500	Ray Faltinsky & Team San Diego
2017	$ 3,500	$ 3,500	Cesar Hernandez
2016	$ 9,100	$ 14,100	Anonymous
2015	$ 35,100	$ 57,000	Ray Faltinsky & Team San Diego
2014	$ 12,800	$ 15,000	Anonymous
2013	$ 50,000	$ 86,250	Ray Faltinsky & Team San Diego
Total	$ 122,600	$ 188,350

The conference call auction is designed to level the playing field. Anyone can bid on Ebay. The call, which will be arranged at a mutually agreeable time, can have up to seven participants. I will give a stock tip on the call (with no reps or warranties!) and will answer any questions related to that stock tip (or anything else the participants would like to discuss). The only topic off limits is discussions on any current portfolio holdings (other than the stock tip).

The Dakshana Endowment

In 2013, at the suggestion of Advisory Board member Ruyintan “Ron” Mehta, we started the Dakshana Endowment. Dakshana’s donors have a choice. They can designate their contributions to be used immediately on our Dakshana Scholar program or it can go into the endowment. Only funds explicitly specified for the endowment go in there. Funds in the endowment are invested in a highly concentrated manner and managed by yours truly. And at the end of every year, 5% of the endowment’s value is spent towards the Dakshana Scholar program.

Ron seeded the endowment with a generous $50,000 contribution. The cost to support one scholar in 2013 was $2500 and Ron figured that, right off the bat, the endowment would be able to fully support at least one new scholar completely every year. Ron will be happy to note that in just five short years the annual giving from the endowment now exceeds his initial seed contribution!

Table 8. Dakshana's Endowment

2018 Dakshana Endowment Overview
Cash and Marketable Securities on 12/31/17:		$1,003,508
Contributions by Donors:	$ 39,500
Spending on Dakshana Scholar Program:	($ 50,500)
Investment Gain (Loss):	($ 221,889)
Cash and Marketable Securities on 12/31/18:		$ 770,619

We also directed all the proceeds from the various auctions to the endowment. I am very pleased to report that the lunch and conference calls led to over $625,000 being added to the endowment account over the last nine years. The good news is that the endowment is off to a robust start and is already able to support at least 15-20 scholars a year into perpetuity.

An Amazing Journey

After traveling hundreds of kilometers I arrive at a modest dwelling in a middle of a forest. A frail single mom whose husband has passed away is delighted to see me. Her economic circumstances are very bleak. She has nothing to offer. But Indian hospitality overrides all that. She cuts a jackfruit from a tree and that is what I am served as tears of joy are streaming down her face. There is no table. Just one plastic chair on which I am requested to sit. Her son, a Dakshana Scholar who brought me to meet her was studying engineering at NIT then. He has now graduated and she no longer needs to work as an unskilled construction worker. It was back breaking work given by the government paying less than $100/month. This scene took place in Kerala a few years ago. I've seen many scenes like this all across India on innumerable scholar home visits.

Thirteen years ago there wasn't a Dakshana in my life. I could never have imagined the innumerable ways in which it has enriched the lives of my family, Team Dakshana and myself. Life would be pretty boring without Dakshana. I sometimes feel I am the biggest beneficiary of Dakshana. The giver is actually a grateful receiver.

Warmly,
