I am a Student of Jawahar Navodaya Vidyalaya. I want to tell my inner words of my heart which was enclosed for many years. When I am a small child I went to a English medium school, there don't know anything about maths, Eng, etc. My teacher always told to me to learn by heart. At that time I don't the meaning of a word, but know that word. One day, there opportunity was came in firstly in my life, then went to Jawahar Navodaya Vidyalaya by blessing of all my elders. At sixth, 7th and 8th class I don't know the actual meaning of the study, why we read all those things, what are the advantages. I have also no guides and references. due to my poor background. My father work hard day and night to educate us. My mother too see the dreams. From ninth class onwards I came to know that all those things and I also came to know that my seniors also went to dakshina. And I also wanted go there, but after 10th class board govt was gave me a wonderful opportunity.

When I went to govt gave the dakshina entrance exam, I prepared my self very hard in two or three days, and my elders and teachers also helped me. we two friends were gave the exam, but unfortunately he was depart from me. I am sorry for him. At that time I thinked limited to get dakshina because from my point of view in all India there were 40 students only selected. and I was not lucky that much. So, I totally not expected that much. when my principal in told me about that I was see new ~~future~~ wonderful dream ~~also~~ of my future at that moment. That I wouldn't expect that. From that day I settle in mind to get in IIT-JEE.

I promise to my Country that I must be selected in IIT. I ~~can~~ couldn't waste my time. Always I concentrate my mind in study, when I am preparing my board exam my best friend Kiran gave her very important time of her to me. He helped me in many ways. He is my best-friend. He is my part of my life when I came to Bangalore (Urban) by selected person. I was very disturbed by new environment. My mind was not settled here. Always views of past school was revolving around my mind. By some days I could concentrate my mind here. Now I concentrate my mind in studies. I also inspired by elders from their school. My whole life was depended in J.N.V. due to this institution. Now, I am here writing this. I can't forget my J.N.V in my life. Now, there are many dreams about me, which shown by many people. My happiest day was that when I am hear that all we means all the Dakshana students were selected in IIT. because we are group when one student will failure, that means we all failure. I expected that they will try their best. Now I don't hear the name of Mr. Col. R.K. Sharma when he came to our class and inspired us. Then my mind totally ~~set~~ settled in study and a greater force was created in my mind to study. I ^{must} try to spend my time in study and understanding to other friends about study. From my point of view subjects were much interesting when we gave much more effort so that we try to learn it by open heart. I am ~~not~~ not much ~~take~~ interested in physics. But due to give some effort. I am also interested in studying in physics. I am thankful to

I am wanted to give thank you to this institution who gave such a opportunity and all my elders who inspire me in study and my all my friends who also inspired me. I only wanted the blessing of my all ~~the~~ respected teachers and elders because it is the main part of success.
