I'd like to become a Dakshana Scholar and hopefully attend IIT because ~~from childhood~~ I always want to become a very good engineer. & it's my dream to appear in IIT Entrance Examination & to enter in a very good IIT. So that my dream can be fulfilled. I belong to a very poor family. My parent is not able to spend much money on my studies. Last year batch, a student was selected in Dakshana, that time I heard about it & know the facilities given to scholar from dakshana. By becoming a Dakshana scholar then only I can hopefully attend IIT. When I become an engineer I want fulfill my parents' dream, as every parents have dream that their child become a very good person in his life. I want to help the poor because their children do not get proper education due to money problem with them. I want to help the poor children to study well & motivate them for study. When the children study then their will be development of the citizens of our country. Ultimately our country will be one of the developed country when the children of the country study. That's I want to help them the reason to become a Dakshana scholar is that dakshana is giving a very good environment of study to the students. The students get more time to study ^{in dakshana} as compared to in Navodaya Vidyalaya's. That's result is very good result in IIT & JEE (Main & Advanced.) That is why I want to become a Dakshana scholar.
