I'd like to become a Dakshana Scholar and hopefully attend IIT because I think to become an IITAN is not so easy. It may be possible by taking some extra coaching classes. Dakshana Institution is the only institution which provides extra coaching without any cost. As we know the world becomes more competitive today by day. It also provides a golden opportunity for the talented students. As I am a student of Dakshana, I try my level best to achieve all knowledge given by our teachers without keeping any doubt. I want to become a top IITAN and dedicate something for my country and country's people. Joining in this institution, I want to fulfil my parent's dream and become a good daughter of my parents. I try my best to give all the happiness of the world to my parents. They are my ideals. In our country

There are so many problems, which cannot be solved by any body, I prepares myself to solve these problems. I want to invent some new things which make a person's work more easier. Dakshana gives us a golden opportunity to know about the culture of other states and to strong the national integration. Dakshana coaching is very essential for us to be a IIT students. It gives the opportunity to the poor scholar by providing free-coaching and accomodation. Dakshana institution provides very good coaching faculties. So, I am sure that I will become a Dakshana scholar & will attend the IIT exam & also I will qualify it.
