I'd like to become a Dakshana Scholar and hopefully attend IIT because It has been my childhood dream to became engineer. I am very interested in it. I wanted to became electric and communicative engineer as it is in demand in these days. I like to face competition but IIT-JEE coaching is coastly. So many talented but poor student can't join in due to only financial backwardness. Their talent should not be supressed Institutes like dakshana are bringing up the talent of poor students. They should also get the chance to show their talent. Dakshana scholars get the IIT coaching by word class teacher. I want to do something different from others. And Dakshna foundation is providing all the required for that (my success.
